Item 3

Disciplinary Information

---

If there are legal or disciplinary events material to your evaluation of Mr. Cotner, we are required to disclose all material facts regarding those events.<sup>1</sup>

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 4

Other Business Activities

---

- A. If Mr. Cotner is actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation, including if Mr. Cotner is registered, or has an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer, registered representative of a broker-dealer, futures commission merchant ("FCM"), commodity pool operator ("CPO"), commodity trading advisor ("CTA"), or an associated person of an FCM, CPO, or CTA, we are required to disclose this fact and describe the business relationship, if any, between the advisory business and the other business.
1. If Mr. Cotner receives commissions, bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products, including as a broker-dealer or registered

<sup>1</sup> Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving Mr. Cotner to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of Mr. Cotner to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

representative, and including distribution or service (“trail”) fees from the sale of mutual funds, we have to disclose this fact. If this compensation is not cash, we are required to explain what type of compensation Mr. Cotner receives. We must explain that this practice gives Mr. Cotner an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs.

Mr. Cotner has nothing to disclose in this regard.

- B. If Mr. Cotner is actively engaged in any business or occupation for compensation not discussed in response to Item 4.A, above, and the other business activity or activities provide a substantial source of Mr. Cotner’s income or involve a substantial amount of Mr. Cotner’s time, we are required to disclose this fact and must describe the nature of that business. If the other business activities represent less than 10 percent of Mr. Cotner’s time and income, we may presume that they are not substantial.

Mr. Cotner does not have any outside business activities to report.

Item 5 Additional Compensation

If someone who is not a client provides an economic benefit to Mr. Cotner for providing advisory services, we are required to generally describe the arrangement. For purposes of this Item, economic benefits include sales awards and other prizes, but do not include Mr. Cotner regular salary. Any bonus that is based, at least in part, on the number or amount of sales, client referrals, or new accounts should be considered an economic benefit, but other regular bonuses should not.

We have nothing to disclose in this regard.

Item 6 Supervision

---

We are required to explain how we supervise Mr. Cotner, including how we monitor Mr. Cotner’s contact with clients. Our firm has to provide the name, title and telephone number of the person responsible for supervising Mr. Cotner’s advisory activities on behalf of our firm.

Mr. Stavinsky, Chief Compliance Officer of Tamar Securities, LLC, supervises and monitors Mr. Cotner’s activities on a regular basis. Please contact Mr. Stavinsky if you have any questions regarding Mr. Cotner’s brochure supplement at Tamar Securities, LLC’s main office number; (818) 914-7460.
